

Chicago Area UU Council - Spring Conference

JUSTICE MATTERS: MEETING THE MOMENT.

WHEN: Saturday, May 10, 2025 9am-2pm

WHERE: North Shore Unitarian Church, 2100 Half Day Rd, Bannockburn, IL and by Zoom video.

FEE: $15 recommended donation

Join fellow UUs from across the Chicago area for a powerful day of connection, inspiration, and action! This year's Spring Conference brings together justice-seekers from multiple congregations to share stories, strategies, and successes around our collective justice work.

Conference Highlights:

Engage with justice leaders from across local UU congregations as we explore:

- Organizing for swift action with and through local partners
- Engaging people of all ages and abilities in meaningful justice work
- Communications that work: Tools & techniques to boost involvement
- Leveraging the UU Advocacy Network of Illinois (UUANI) for collective impact
- Creating a Justice Force Multiplier: Collaborating across congregations to expand reach and avoid re-inventing the wheel

Expect dynamic presentations, interactive panel discussions, and networking opportunities with fellow justice-minded UUs!

CAUUC Mission Statement

The mission of the Chicago Area Unitarian Universalist Council is to support its member congregations by working together to achieve a common goal of promoting Unitarian Universalist principles in the greater Chicago area by:

- Increasing the visibility of the UU community to the greater Chicago community;
- Promoting advocacy of social justice;
- Strengthening our congregations through sharing of programs, particularly for leadership development; and
- Entering into appropriate coalitions with other faith traditions which share our core values.
